Governor

EXECUTIVE ORDER

21-106

October 29, 2021

INCREASING ACCESS TO UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE

WHEREAS, on March 9, 2020, Executive Order 20-02 was issued for a declaration of a state of emergency due to the dangers to health and life posed by COVID-19, and that Order has been extended to remain in effect through at least October 30, 2021;

WHEREAS, on August 19, 2021, I issued Executive Order 21-86 declaring a disaster emergency for new COVID-19 variants and that Order has been extended through at least November 13, 2021;

WHEREAS, during the pendency of this emergency, business owners and workers in Rhode Island continue to face economic hardships resulting from the adverse impact of COVID-19;

WHEREAS, Rhode Island has been experiencing a high volume of unemployment insurance claims due to the COVID-19 crisis and through no fault of Rhode Island employers or Rhode Island employees;

WHEREAS, current law and regulations governing the Rhode Island unemployment insurance claims system impose negative financial consequences to employers impacted by the COVID-19 emergencies;

WHEREAS, Rhode Island General Laws§ 28-43-3(2)(ii) sets out a methodology in accordance with which the unemployment insurance employer accounts of Rhode Island employers are charged for benefits paid to Rhode Island employees who are separated from employment;

WHEREAS, the contribution rate for Rhode Island employers under Rhode Island General Laws§ 28-43-8(b) could be negatively impacted by benefits paid to Rhode Island employees who are separated from employment;

WHEREAS, the suspension of using unemployment benefits paid as a result of the COVID-19 crisis in computing the future unemployment tax charges of a taxpaying employer will provide relief to Rhode Island employers impacted by the COVID-19 crisis;

WHEREAS, under the state of emergency, the State has been experiencing an unprecedented level of unemployment claims as well as other related issues and seeks to pay qualifying claims as soon as possible;

WHEREAS, as a result of this emergency, it may be advisable to call upon the knowledge, skills and expertise of certain Rhode Island Department of Labor and Training (DLT) workers and to bring them back into active state service;

WHEREAS, Rhode Island General Laws§ 36-10-36 provides for the suspension of pension benefits of retirees who have retired under the provisions of titles 16 or 36 who return to state service;

WHEREAS, retirees who may have critical skills necessary to address this public health emergency may be reluctant to re-enter state service if their pension benefits will thereby be suspended; and

WHEREAS, it is advisable to remove any disincentive to re-employment of skilled and knowledgeable retirees by the state for limited periods and for limited personnel in order to address this health emergency.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DANIEL J. MCKEE, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Governor of the State of Rhode Island, pursuant to Article IX of the Rhode Island Constitution and the Rhode Island General Laws, including, but not limited to, Title 30, Chapter 15, do hereby order and direct the following:

Relief for Employer Unemployment Insurance Tax Charges

1. The charges to employers' accounts under Rhode Island General Laws § 28-43-3(2)(ii) for the period of January 27, 2020 to September 4, 2021 for individuals who are paid benefits for reasons related to COVID-19 are hereby suspended. DLT may direct these charges to the balancing account under Rhode Island General Laws § 28-43-2(2)(ii) and (vi).

Post-Retirement Employment of Certain DLT Retirees

2. The prohibitions and restrictions on post-retirement employment by persons who have retired under the provisions of titles 16, 36 or 45 which are contained in Rhode Island General Laws § 36-10-36, are hereby suspended with respect to those specific retirees identified by DLT, provided that with respect to each such retiree identified as possessing skills, training or knowledge necessary to address the public health crisis engendered by COVID-19, DLT executes and delivers to the State Retirement Board of the Employees Retirement System of the State of Rhode Island and the Municipal Employees Retirement System of the State of Rhode Island a written certification that the re-employment is of finite duration and is necessitated by the good faith belief that the skills, training or knowledge of the retiree are needed to address the public health crisis caused by COVID-19.

This Order, superseding Executive Order 21-92, shall take effect immediately and remain in full force and effect through November 27, 2021 unless renewed, modified or terminated by a subsequent Executive Order.
